

Paediatric Feeding in Neurodisability

Marino Institute of Education
14 May 2025 at 9:00-16:00

This training is for healthcare professionals working in a paediatric setting in Neurodisability with children with oropharyngeal dysphagia.

This Course will focus on

- Paediatric Feeding Disorders and oropharyngeal dysphagia.
- How to participate in a Team-based assessment.
- Specify key risk factors impacting a child's safety.
- Recognise the influence of motor and sensory skills on a child's feeding skills.
- Contribute to a team-based clinical impression and management plan that supports development of feeding skills.
- Engage in family-centered practice considering culture, values, stress and expectations.

Cost

The cost of the course day is €120.

Course facilitators

CRC National Specialist Service FEDS team including SLT, OT, Nursing, Dietetics and Medical.

Further information and booking

- If you have any queries, please email NSSFeds@crc.ie
- Booking via Eventbrite
- A Certificate of Attendance will be provided.

